

The American Guild of Organists is pleased to announce the AGO Members Today 2011!

This handsome publication will be a welcome addition to your personal library. It will be a great way to show pride in being a member of the American Guild of Organists, and a valuable resource as well.

Harris Connect, a leading publisher of alumni and membership publications for more than 45 years, has been selected to compile this special edition. It is expected to be the definitive “who’s who” of the Guild, and an excellent tool that you can use to connect with other members.

The publication will feature an introduction and history of the Guild with full color pictures. For the first time ever this edition will include a beautiful photo gallery composed of member submitted photos. In addition to personal and career information, members will also be able to list certifications and chapter information.

Members of the American Guild of Organists will be contacted by phone, e-mail and mail around the beginning of October to verify and update their contact and career information.
