

Pipe Organ Encounters is an educational outreach program of the American Guild of Organists. Major funding for Pipe Organ Encounters is provided by the Associated Pipe Organ Builders of America. Additional support is provided by the American Institute of Organbuilders, the Jordan Organ Endowment, and the National Endowment for the Arts. Permanently endowed AGO scholarships are provided in memory of Charlene Brice Alexander, Robert S. Baker, Seth Bingham, Michael Cohen, Margaret R. Curtin, Clarence Dickinson, Richard and Clara Mae Enright, Virgil Fox, Philip Hahn, Charles N. Henderson, Alfred E. Lunsford, Ruth Milliken, Bruce Prince-Joseph, Douglas Rafter, Ned Siebert, Mary K. Smith, and Martin M. Wick; and in honor of Anthony Baglivi, Philip E. Baker, Gordon and Naomi Rowley, Fred Swann, Morgan and Mary Simmons, and the Leupold Foundation.

Scholarship Information

Scholarship assistance is available through the American Guild of Organists. Please contact Stephen Buzard (sbuzard@saintjamescathedral.org) for information on initiating the online scholarship application process. In addition, students may also contact AGO chapters or religious institutions if financial aid is needed.

"We had Masterclasses/lectures on how the Organ is made and even went to Bedient Organ Shop! It was an AMAZING experience and I recommend it to EVERYONE!"

An Overview

POE Tech is a chance for students aged 16-23 to learn the art and craft of organ building. Students will gain hands-on experience in the design, construction, and maintenance of the pipe organ.

POE Highlights

- Daily organ building classes at the Berghaus Pipe Organ Builders' shop in Bellwood, IL.
- Visit to J.L. Weiler organ restoration shop in the Loop
- Downtown Chicago chamber music recital, pizza dinner, and organ crawl, exploring some of the city's finest instruments

Accommodations/Travel

Students will get a taste of campus life at Concordia University Chicago in River Forest, IL. Both Concordia and Berghaus are conveniently located within a 30 minute drive from O'Hare and Midway airports and Chicago's Union Station. All travel styles will be accommodated.
