SONATA IN SEA: CAPE COD

Sonata in Sea: Cape Cod was commissioned by the 2003 American Guild of Organists Region I Convention, and first performed on June 30, 2003, by Christa Rakich at The First Congregational Church of Wellfleet, UCC, Wellfleet, Massachusetts.

The registrations given in the score are suggestions only. While this music was conceived for the endearingly modest 19th and early 20th century organs so readily found on Cape Cod, performers on larger instruments are encouraged to make use of their wider resources as they judge most suitable.

The Sonata’s three movements reflect an entirely personal response to three contrasting locales on Cape Cod. In the first, Barnstable, I had in mind the quiet daily bustle of a working and fishing New England town. Wellfleet is a meditation on the almost uncanny beauty of the Atlantic Ocean to be found there; it is in the form of a chaconne in 12/8 time. And for the final movement, Provincetown…well, for Provincetown I have chosen the free-spirited form of the quodlibet (Lat. "What you please") in which two tunes are made, sometimes a bit roughly, to be heard simultaneously. The two tunes I have chosen are each presented separately, and then combined in double counterpoint. The first theme early music connoisseurs will recognize as the popular air from 16th century England, Jhon come kiss me now; the second is the robust hymn tune Melita, by John Bacchus Dykes, widely known and loved as "The Mariner’s Hymn."
